

I am against NAM's petition 04-160. When I travel I know I can always have the local weather and traffic at my finger tips. Before XM I would have to search all radio stations to try to find one with traffic information and usually gave up because of the danger of trying to tune the radio while driving on a busy road.